BACK IN TIME

Automotive Facts from the Past...

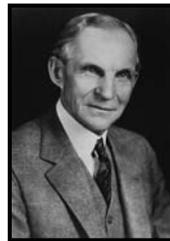

Here are a few historical facts related to the auto industry. See how many you already knew!

1. Rolls-Royce Ltd. was essentially a car and airplane engine making company, established in 1906 by Charles Stewart

Rolls and Frederick Henry Royce.

2. A 1962 Ferrari 250 GTO sold at Bonham's Quail Auction on August 14, 2014 for $34,650,000 ($38M incl. buyers premium), breaking the record previously held by a 1954 Mercedes-Benz W196R race car which sold for $31M in 2013.

3. In the year 1916, 55% of the cars in the world were Model-T Fords. This remains an unbroken record. EXTRA - As a young man, Henry Ford used to repair watches for his friends and family using tools he made himself.

4. The first road-worthy cars used a lever instead of a steering wheel to steer. It had a design and functioning like that of a joy stick.

5. Jamaican reggae star Bob Marley owned a BMW, but not for the prestige of owning a BMW. He bought the car because of the coincidence of initials for his band - Bob Marley and the Wailers.

6. The famous Little Tikes Cozy Coupe toy car reached 6 million in sales by its 25th anniversary in 2004, and was called the "world's best-selling car for much of this decade" by The New York Times in 1998, outselling the Honda Accord and Ford Taurus.

Car Care "Tip of the Month"

Time Again for that Pre-Winter Checkup!

Before the winter hits, don't forget to have a few things checked out:

- 1) Battery - for those cold winter starts.
- 2) Anti-Freeze - for just that reason.
- 3) Tires - for proper wear and tread depth (don't forget the spare!).
- 4) Emergency Items - flares, first aid kit, blankets, flashlight, etc.
